Hear What HKUST Experts Say

To provide a better service to the media and the community, the Office of University Development and Public Affairs of the Hong Kong University of Science and Technology (HKUST) has put together a list of HKUST experts who can provide the latest background information and comment on various subjects of topical interest.

The HKUST Expert List 2000 details some of our faculty's areas of expertise, how to contact them, and the languages spoken by them.

For easy access, this Expert List is posted on the web at <http://www.ust.hk/oudpa/expertlist> .
